1974 Beauty Pageant

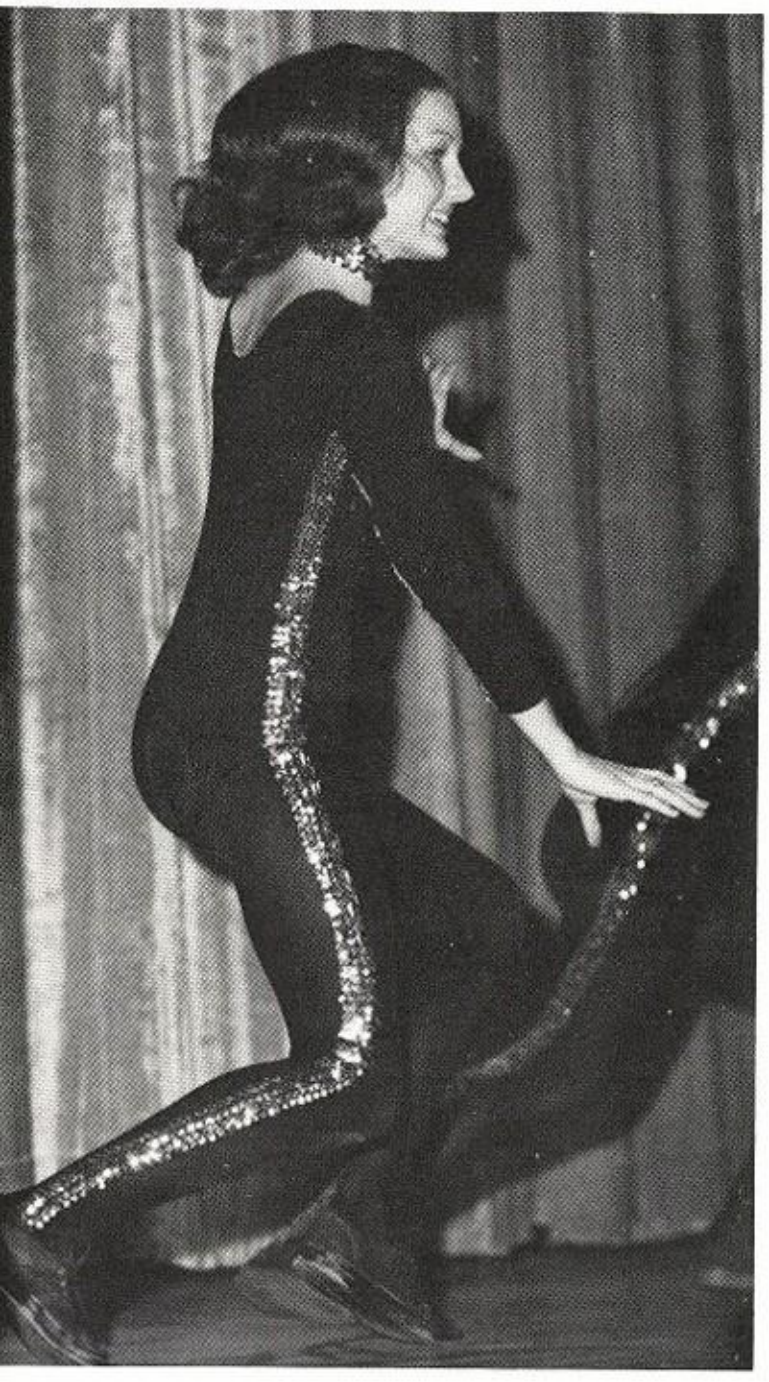
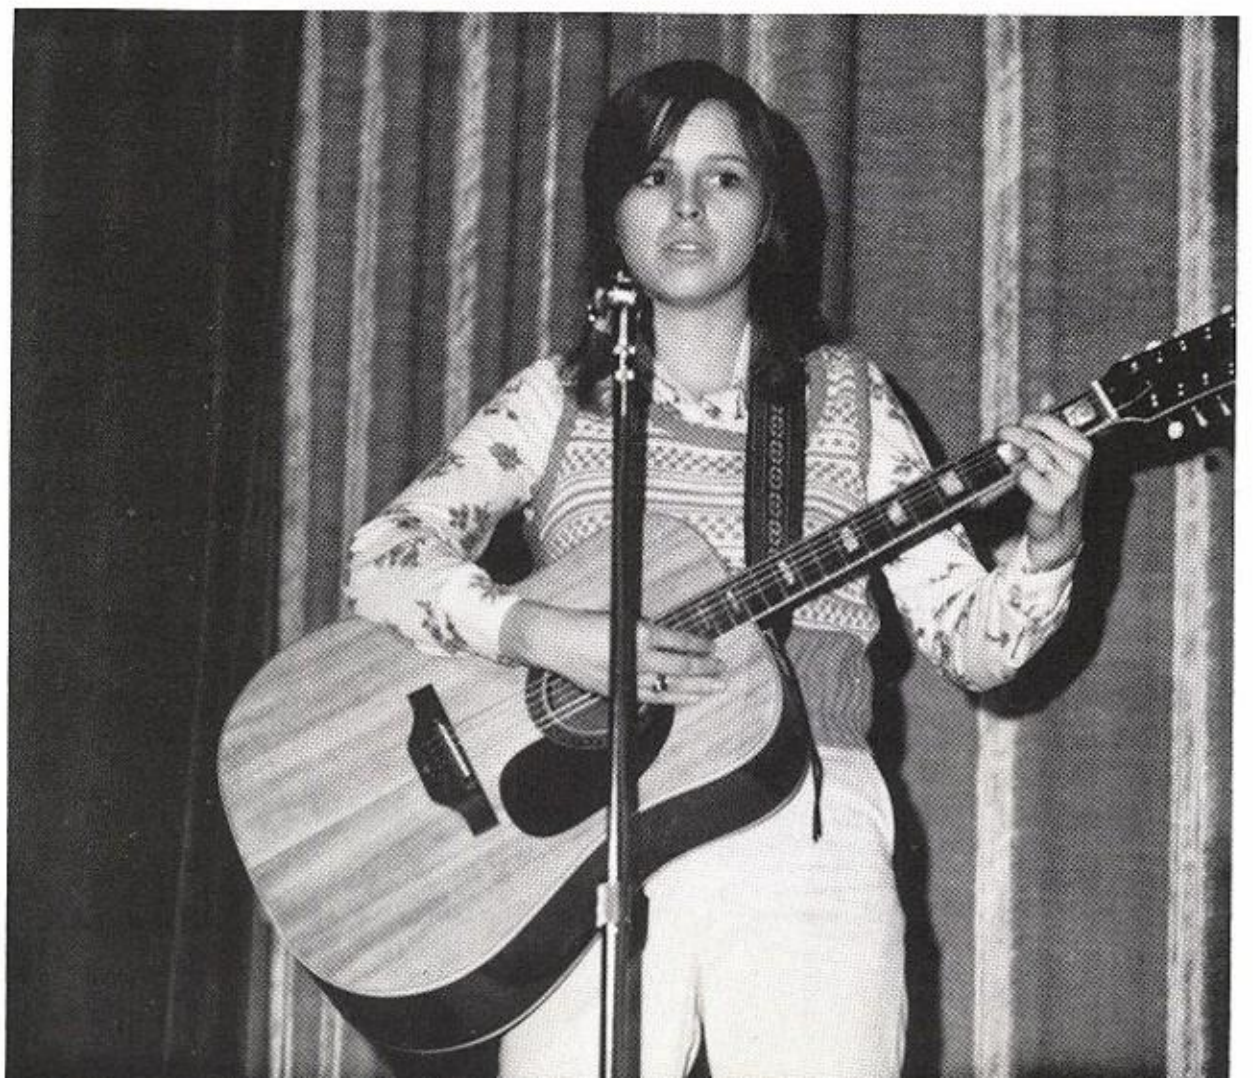
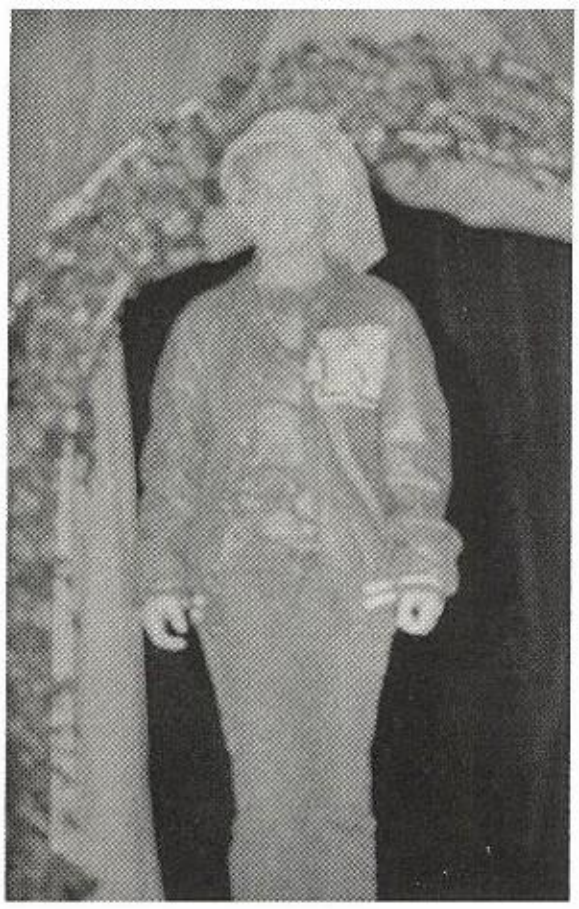
RIGHT: Mike and Leasa, ain't they cute?
BELOW: Camille, a thief in the night.
BELOW RIGHT: I was raised on Country Sunshine.





The K.H.S. Beauty Pageant, sponsored by the Reflector Staff, is one of the main highlights of the year, where the Beauties and Handsomes from each class are selected by a panel of judges from out of town consisting of two women and one man. Each contestant is judged upon appearance, personality, and poise.



UPPER LEFT: I have often heard beauty is painless, but this is ridiculous.
ABOVE: Curlers in your hair, shame on you!

BELOW: Going back into time we see the Lemon Sisters and their band in action.
OPPOSITE PAGE, ABOVE: Not a worry in the air — just miles and miles of smiles.

Cherish her name as days go by.

Here's to old K.H.S.

Here's to thee, our alma mater,

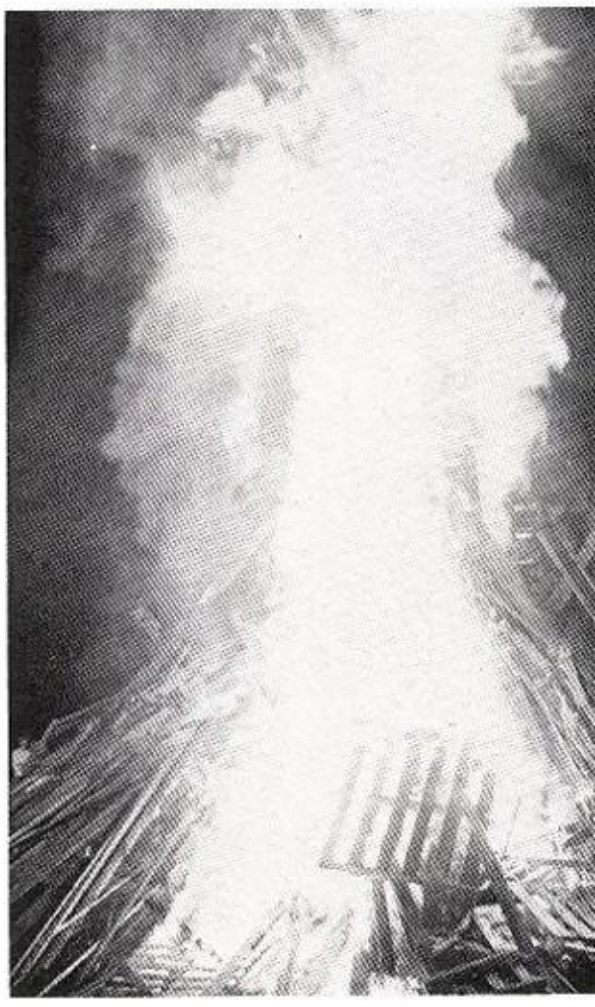
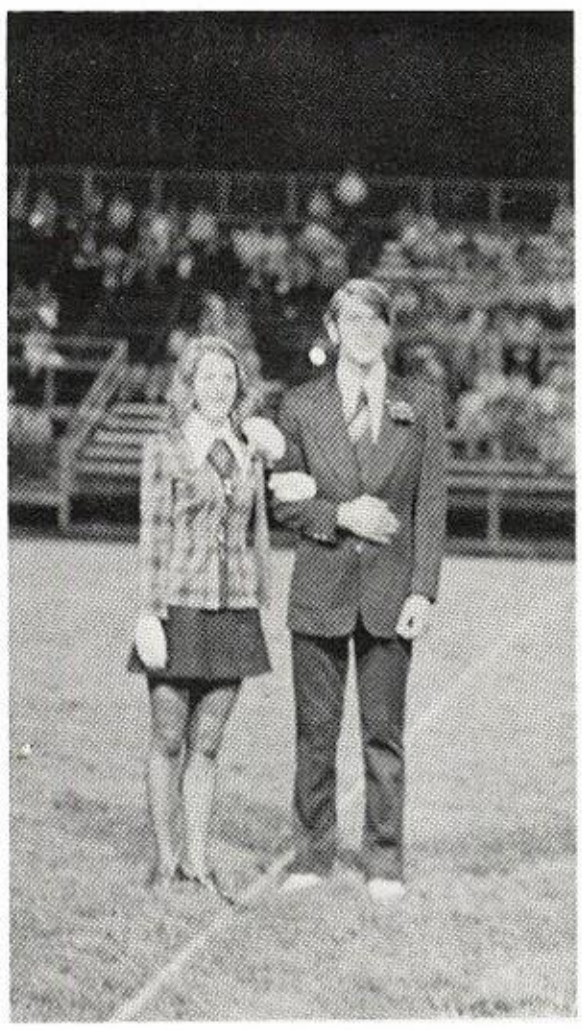
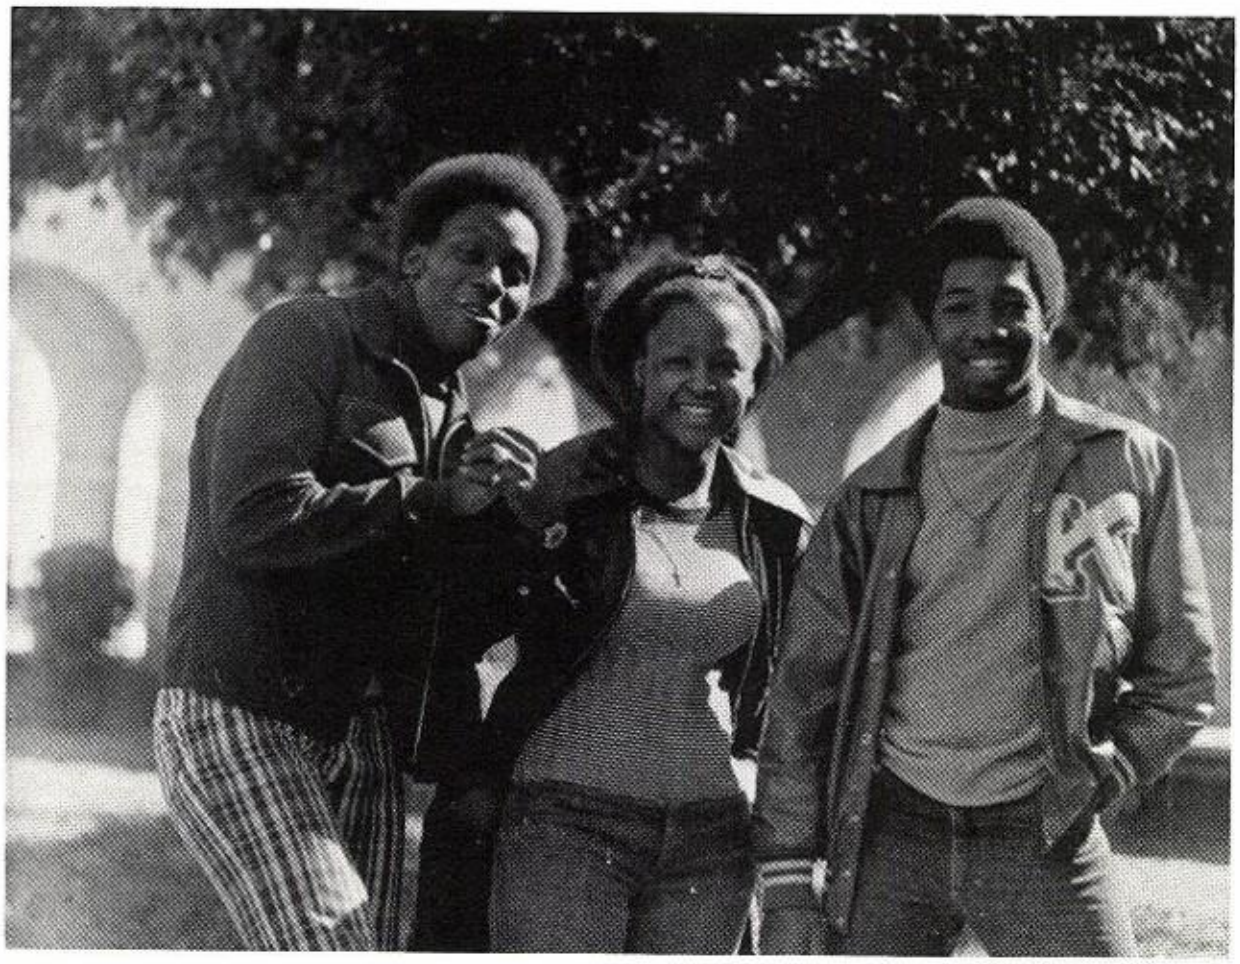
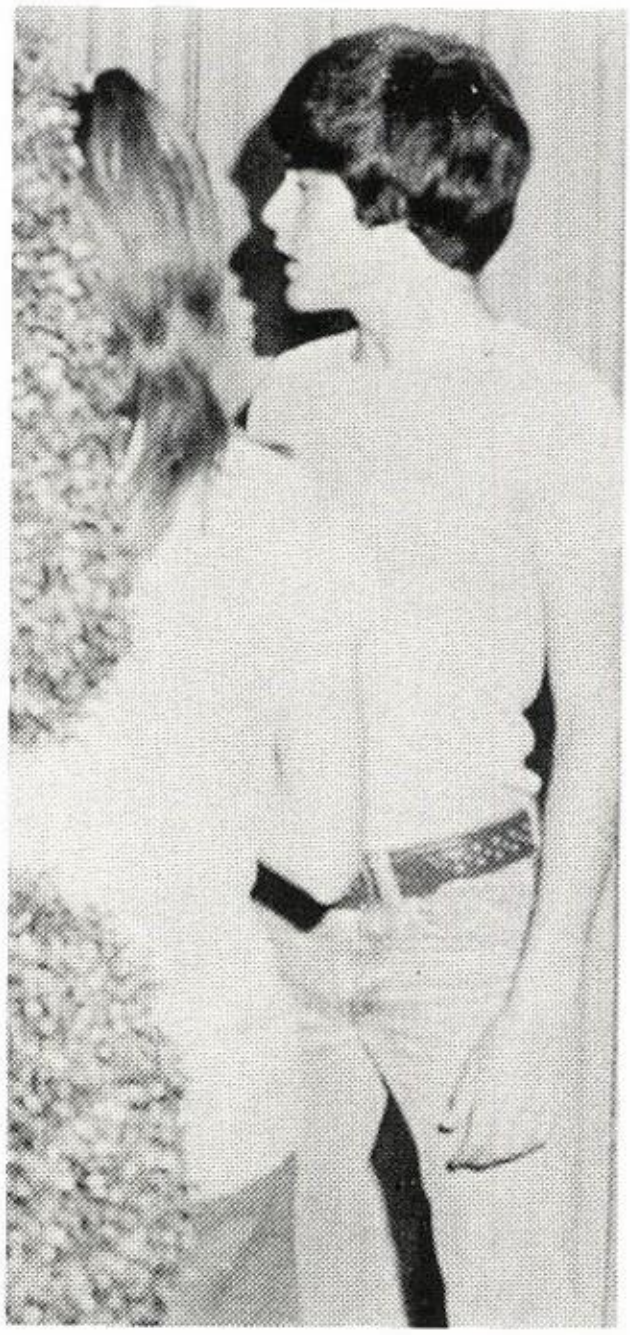
HOMECOMING is always an important fall activity at K.H.S. with the bonfire on Thursday and the pre-game crowning of the Queen on Friday. This year the bonfire was almost rained out. Ignoring the energy crisis, Kilgore students poured 60 gallons of deisel fuel on the bonfire to get it started.









ABOVE LEFT: Here we see the Three Stooges in their everyday activity.
RIGHT: I guess they went this way, let's go see.

Fifties Day

Sponsored by the National Honor Society, Fifties Day was one of the most enjoyed activities at K.H.S. in many years. A day full of contests such as malt drinking, V-W stuffing, and tricycle races was topped off with a giant SOCK HOP in the gym.

The Zillas, a local motorcycle gang, led by the Head Zilla, Jay Clements, crash the Hop and get busted.

The Sr. Honors Assembly

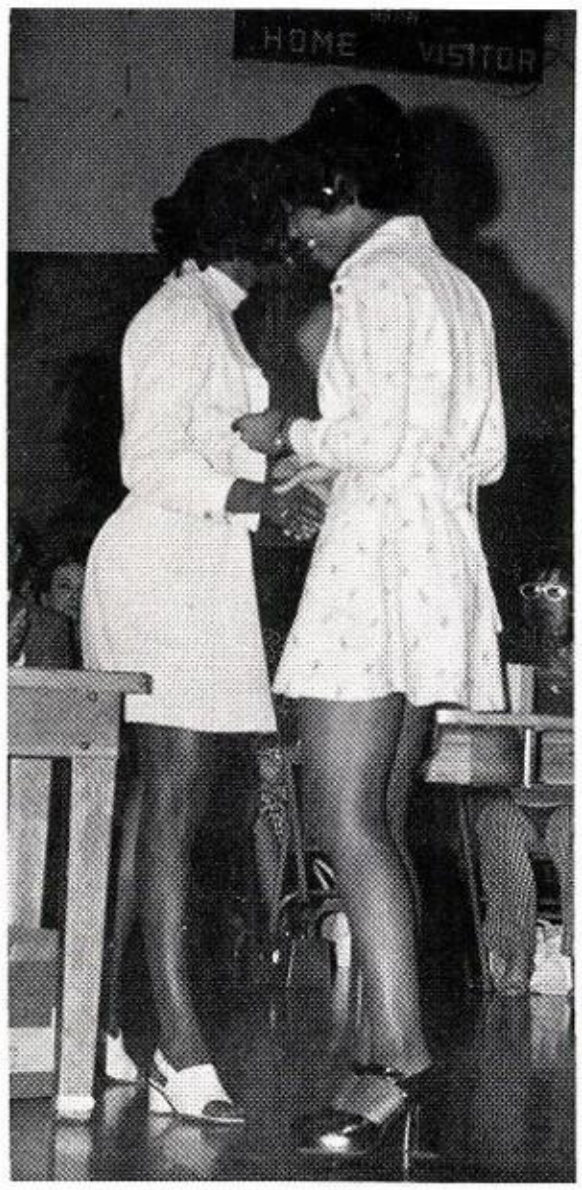
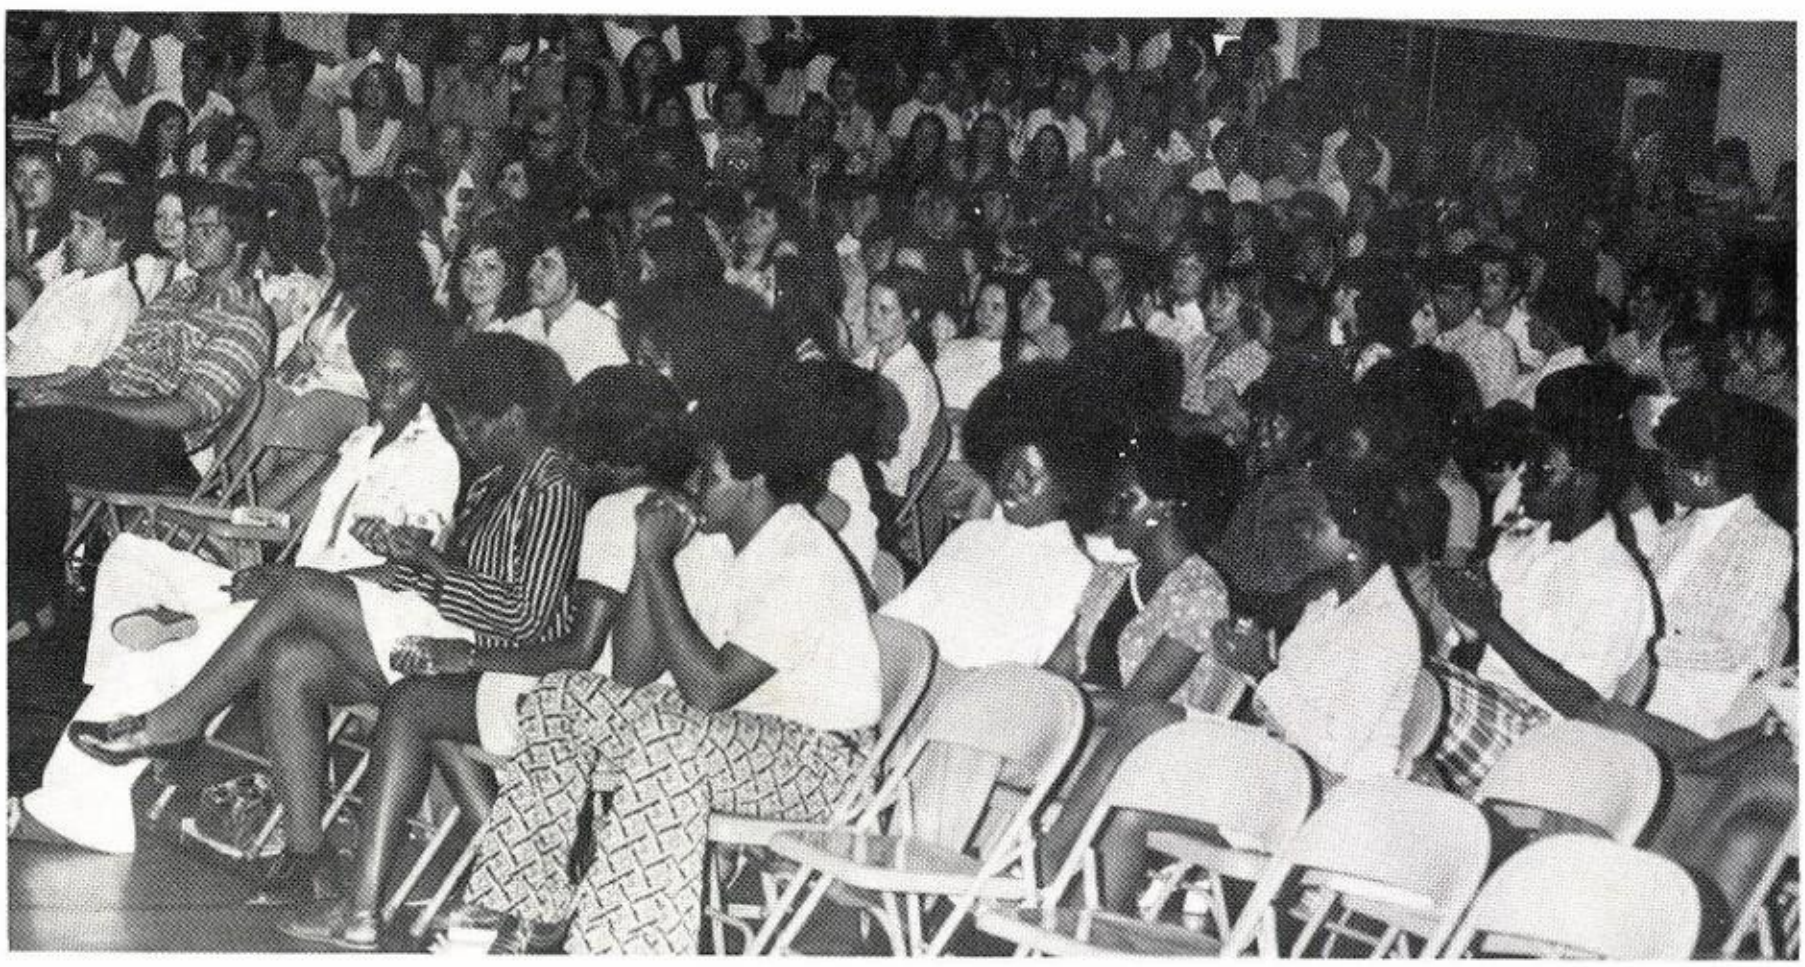
The assembly opens as Mrs. Fenner announces the Sr. superlatives.

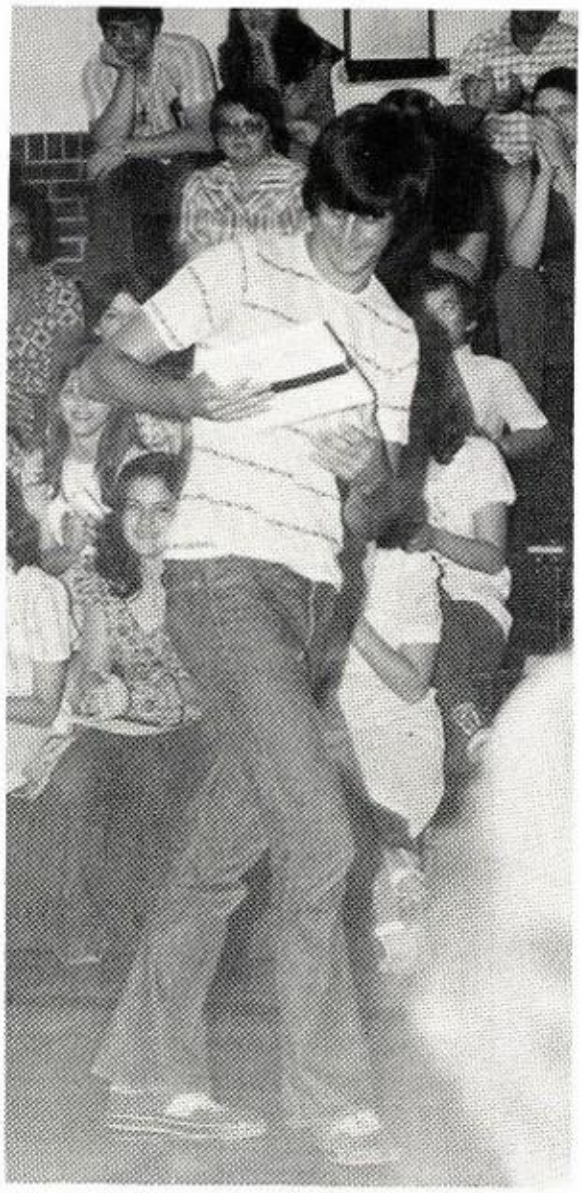


65,000 dollars in scholarships awarded.

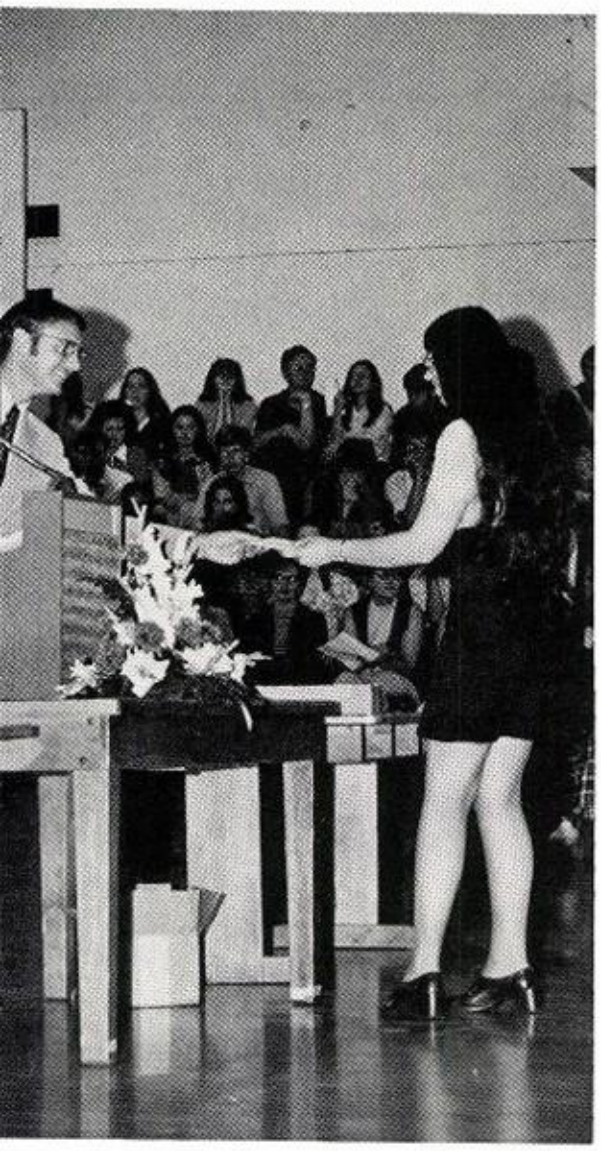


The Class of '74 listens attentively . . . as usual.

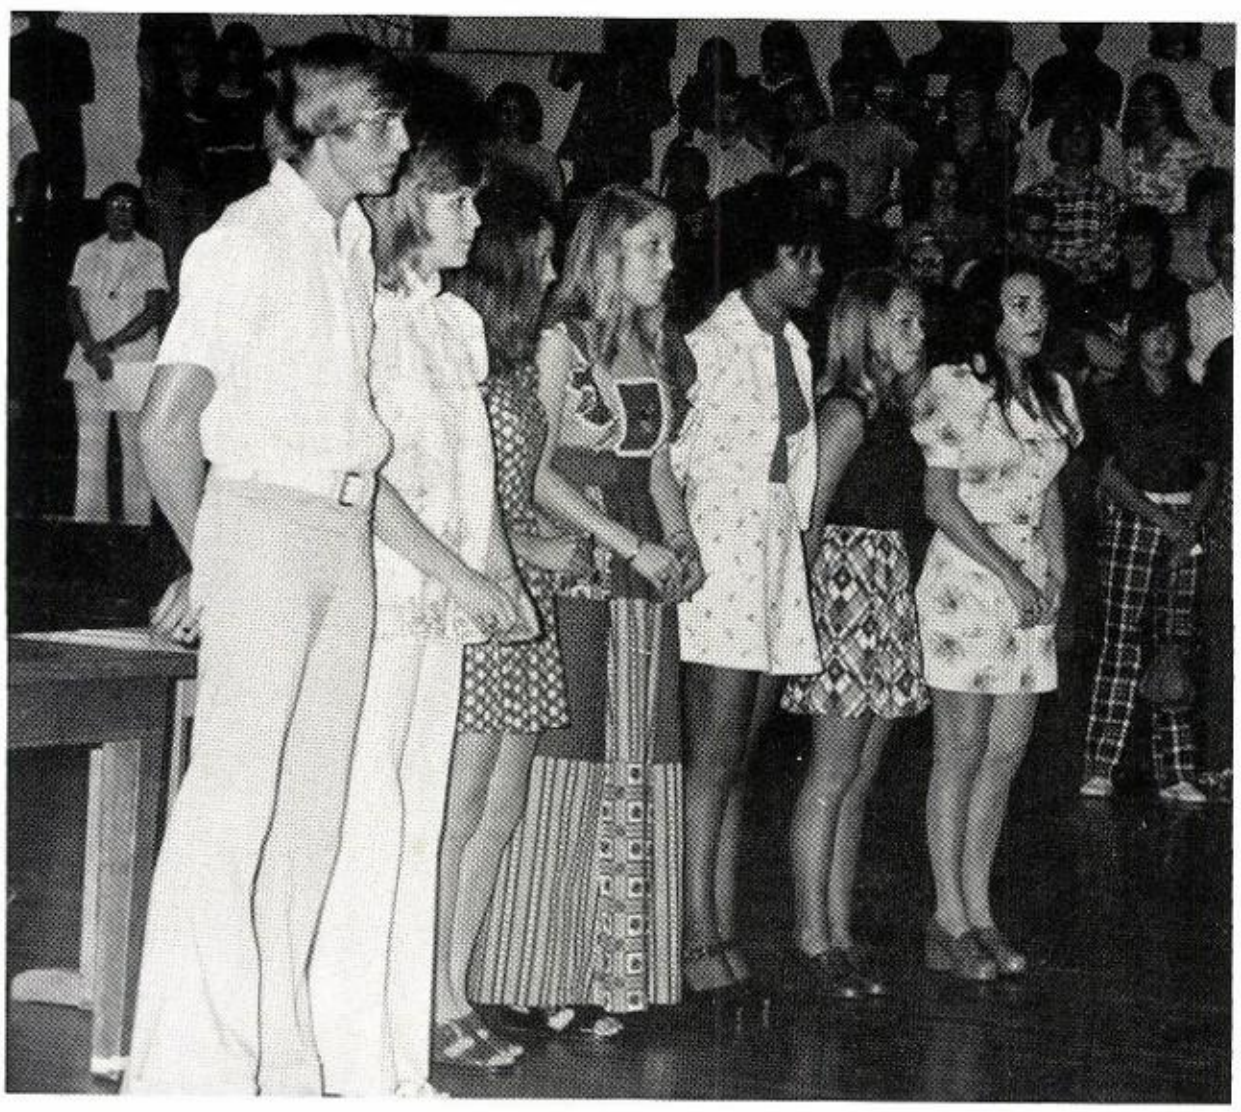
She said it was mine!



What did Kenneth really do to deserve the title of Hi-Stepper Beau?



One of many music scholarships.



Sr. cheerleaders lead us in the school song for the last time . . . Don't cry, Baby!

Remember?

RIGHT — Decorating for homecoming . . .
Learning to brush
our teeth . . .
"Fifties Day"
Especially remember
all the money we spent on rings, invitations, souvenirs . . .

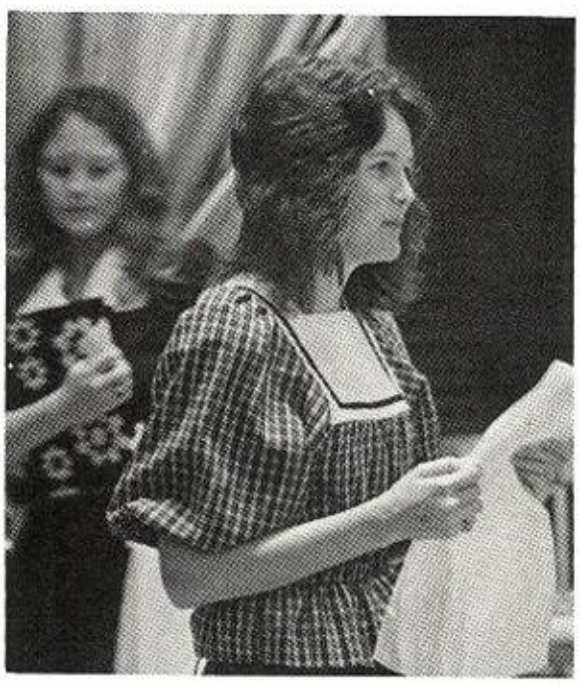
the ice storm . . .



picking up our invitations . . .

Senior Banquet

"AHHH . . ."

ABOVE LEFT: Actually, I wish they'd hurry . . . I mean, I'm kinda hungry.
LEFT: "Did you hear what they said about . . . ?"
BELOW: Take it easy, Lew, they'll feed you at LSU.

1973 was another big year for the mighty Bulldogs of K.H.S. Riding a tide of SPIRIT unequaled in recent years at Kilgore, the BIG RED rolled up an impressive record and was at one time ranked sixth in the state. Ending the season with an 8-2 record, the 'Dogs placed a total of thirteen players on All-District teams, and two men were named to the Texas Class-AAA All-State first team.

Predicted to take the District 9-AAA title, the Mighty Bulldogs opened the 1973 season with impressive wins over non-district foes Daingerfield, Palestine, and West Rusk. Riding a #6 state ranking coming into the "big game," the Bulldogs let an inspired pride of Lions get an early advantage, which could not be overcome. Henderson, the eventual District 9-AAA champs, went on to represent East Texas in the state semi-finals, where they were beaten by state champs, Cuero.
